

Have You Made Any Of These
ELEVEN Mistakes By Not Working
With A Personal Family Solicitor?

Solicitors That Drag Things Out To Make More Money Should Not Be Getting Your Trust...

By Paul Solomons

Welcome to your Personal Family Solicitor...

I am on a mission to revolutionise legal services and the way they are provided to families and business owners in England.

As you may have experienced for yourself, it doesn't always feel great to work with a solicitor, does it?

Maybe you've met up with a solicitor to prepare legal documents for your family or your business. And the chances are you signed a few documents, took them home and filed them away on a shelf or in a drawer. You've probably never looked at them again.

And you most likely haven't heard from your solicitor once since then.

But you know you've had changes in your personal life and in your business that aren't reflected in the documents that were originally prepared for you. You may be wondering in the back of your mind whether everything was set up right. Or if you are doing everything you are should be doing.

But you're not going to call your solicitor because you know you'll get a heavy bill in the post a few days later.

So, you go on wondering, but it keeps nagging you in the back of your mind. The chances are you'll never contact your solicitor again until something happens or until there's a crisis.

And when that happens it will probably be too late.

I can also guarantee it's going to be painful and expensive.

Have you already made one of these 11 mistakes?

1. Signed legal documents without having them reviewed by a solicitor?
2. Set up your business online or with a solicitor and wondered if things were really set up right?
3. Wondered if you had everything in place for the protection of your children or spouse if something happens to you?
4. Not responded to legal action because you didn't know what to do?
5. Bought insurance without having the proposal reviewed by your solicitor?
6. Taken on a loan without the terms being reviewed?
7. Invested in shares without your solicitor taking a look at the investment terms?
8. Entered into an agreement with a friend or family member without documenting what you agreed to?
9. Had a death in the family and tried to take care of everything without a solicitor or without a Will?
10. Not collected money owed to you because you didn't know how to collect it?
11. Turned to a solicitor to resolve a conflict and find that it escalated to a messy, protracted and expensive battle.

If you've made any of these mistakes, you are not alone.

Thousands of people from every walk of life find themselves adrift, confused and without someone to turn to. But let me tell you it's not your fault!

The way that the legal system is set up virtually guarantees you'll make at least one of these errors and possibly several of them.

Solicitors are incentivised by hourly billing to drag out or create conflicts instead of resolving them as quickly as possible.

And because you don't want to pay a heavy bill every time you pick up the phone to your solicitor, you don't get things checked out that should be looked at.

My Personal Family Solicitor programme exists so you never have to be subjected to one of these mistakes again or to a solicitor who doesn't care.
