Privacy Policy

- Where necessary the organisation will share your data with specific third parties, such as the emergency services, governing body or assessing body to enable the provision of a security service.
- The organisation may also share your data with third parties in the context of a sale of some or all of its business. In those circumstances the data will be subject to confidentiality arrangements.

BBP Security Services will not share your personal data with any other third party without your express permission.

How does the organisation protect data?

The organisation takes the security of your data seriously. The organisation has internal policies and controls in place to try to ensure that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed, and is not accessed except by its employees in the performance of their duties.

For how long does the organisation keep data?

Personal data, such as contact details, will be kept for the duration of the client contract plus a further 3 years, in line with our data retention procedure.

Any video recording will be retained for a minimum of 30 days, after which it will only be retained if there is a requirement ie for court evidence.

Any voice data will be retained for a minimum of 90 days in line with the British Standard BS 5979, after which it will only be retained if there is a requirement ie for court evidence

Your rights

As a data subject, you have a number of rights. You can:

- access and obtain a copy of your data on request;
- require the organisation to change incorrect or incomplete data; and
- require the organisation to delete or stop processing your data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing.
