

Consultation News

30th January 2018

Potting Permit Byelaw

The permit conditions, for commercial and recreational potting are being reviewed and D&S IFCA wants to hear your views.

THE CONSULTATION WILL BEGIN ON 31st JANUARY 2018 AND END ON 14th MARCH 2018.

What topics are included in the D&S IFCA consultation?

- Protection of spiny lobsters
- Gear restrictions to protect populations of otters in estuaries
- Managing the South Devon Inshore Fishing Grounds (known locally as the IPA)
- Managing the whelk fishery
- Lundy Island – No Take Zone

You have the opportunity to get involved in this process and assist D&S IFCA's decision making. All stakeholders, regardless of their interest or fishing sector have the opportunity to respond to this consultation

Links – Click to view the information

Development report & focussed consultation items \(2nd Edition January 2018\)

The complete report - background information and the evidence base. What measures or changes are being considered and why? What are the proposed permit conditions? A summary of response from the phase one consultation and an explanation of the process followed.

Extract from the Development report & focussed consultation items

A smaller easier to read document focused on the consultation items only

You can choose to respond using the email below or on the on-line survey form

- consultation@devonandsevernifca.gov.uk
- Online Consultation Survey Form