

General news – October 2017

Commercial scallop fisheries re-opened

The commercial scallop fisheries in the district reopened on 1st October after their annual three-month closure. The break is in place to reduce the effort directed towards the fisheries during the main spawning periods. The closure does not affect recreational divers, who can take up to 15 scallops per permit holder per day throughout the year.

----- Ends -----