

Post Title	MECHANICAL TECHNICIAN
Responsible to	Lead Technicians and Operations Manager
Location	Ballymena

Main Tasks

- Work as part of a project team with specific duties of mechanical assembly on special purpose industrial automation and robotic systems
- Work efficiently and effectively in build team
- Assist with installation of machinery on customer's premises (UK and overseas)
- Train apprentices and less experienced staff in appropriate techniques
- Communicate with Project Engineers / Managers regarding any related requirements or changes which require action
- Ensure procedures and working practices to ISO9001:2015 are adhered to and suggest where improvements can be made
- Promote and ensure good housekeeping practices in and around the facility
- Carry out a safe working practice at all times
- Protect and support the Company's reputation in public with customers, suppliers and other interested parties

Requirements

- Time served mechanical / fitting / assembly technician
 - Qualified to HNC level in a relevant discipline
 - Ability to work to technical drawings and parts lists
 - Ideally with a minimum of 2 years' experience in a relevant environment
 - Clear communication skills for update of project tasks
 - Willing and able to travel to customer sites both nationally and internationally
 - Effective interpersonal relationship skills to create a positive and productive team-oriented environment with all departments
 - A proactive and flexible approach to work and be comfortable with a dynamic environment with constantly changing priorities
 - Have a flexible work attitude and be safety conscious
-

What we expect from you:

- A proactive can-do attitude.
- A positive and determined work ethic
- A professional approach
- A commitment to excellence in all that you do
- A team player, willing to continuously and proactively collaborate, share, and seek information and guidance
- Self-driven to make a significant contribution to maximising AGR customer service

You will be required to perform duties other than those given in the job description for the post. The particular duties and responsibilities attached to posts may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. Such variations are a common occurrence and would not of themselves justify the re-evaluation of a post. In cases, however, where a permanent and substantial change in the nature of the duties and responsibilities of a post occurs consistent with a higher level of responsibility, then the post would be eligible for re-evaluation.

