Data Protection Statement

The data supplied on this form is covered by the General Data Protection Regulations 2016. Cornwall IFCA has the right to process this data under Article 6(1)(c) of this Act as your data fulfils a legislative function. Your data is processed by Cornwall IFCA under a legal obligation conferred in Sections 1 and 4(2) of the Sea Fisheries (Shellfish) Act 1967 Act and Section 15(3) of the Sea Fisheries Act 1968 as is required in the Fal Fishery Order 2016.

We will only use your data provided on this form to process and monitor your licence. If you tick the highlighted consent box regarding general information, you are consenting to us sending you information on upcoming changes to legislation, formal and informal consultations on future regulations, and wider initiatives that may affect you. You have the right to withdraw your consent for this at any time.

If you choose to consent to us sending you text reminders in respect of your monthly statistics for your vessel, you have the right to withdraw your consent for this at any time.

If you choose to consent to us sending your details to Cornwall Port Health so that they can advise you of important information relevant to the Fal Fishery, you have the right to withdraw your consent for this at any time.

The data is also held securely on Cornwall Council's network of servers. We retain your data for two years following your application for a licence, after which it will be removed and paper copies destroyed. Electronic copies will have personal data removed two years after the date on which the licence was issued.

If you would like to access any of the information we hold about you, or you have concerns regarding the way we have processed your information, please contact: Simon Mansell, Data Protection Officer, Cornwall Council, County Hall, Treyew Road, Truro, Cornwall TR1 3AY.
