

October 2012

Win a hand-stitched leather football

LIFEfit – browser-based life and pensions administration

LIFEfit is a flexible software package for life and pensions administration with a worldwide client base.

If you would like to enter a draw to win a leather football, hand-stitched in Africa, just send us a message via the contact page on www.fitltd.com containing the word “football”*. Please remember to include your email address in the message.

The closing date for entries is 31 October 2012. Three entries will be drawn at random and the winners will each receive a leather football, hand-stitched in Africa. Winners’ names will be published on the website.
