

Move With Pilates Privacy Policy

Move With Pilates takes your privacy very seriously. From 25 May 2018 we are subject to the General Data Protection Regulation, which applies to the United Kingdom and the European Union.

The personal information we collect about you is the information you provide if you contact us via the contact form on the Move With Pilates website, and when you join and sign the consent form. This is as follows:

- Name
- Contact telephone number
- Emergency contact telephone number
- Email address
- Health information

The website has an SSL certificate to ensure security of any data submitted using the contact form. This data is used to make contact with you to respond to your enquiry.

This data is kept securely and is deleted or destroyed when you no longer attend the Move With Pilates Studio. This data is never passed to a third party.
