

International Book Day at the Brook School

Date: 13th March 2015

Dear Parents/Carers

Next Friday 13th March the Brook will be taking part in International Book day. Teachers will be contacting parents via the pupil's home books with regard to particular clothes or costumes, should you wish your child to take part.

It will be a fun day of learning /reading and activities. The two books we have been looking at this term are below.

KS1 "Don't put your finger in the jelly, Nelly"

KS2 "Don't spill the milk"
