

Rainbow Brook Tree

Pupils will be able to make a Rainbow inspired by the Brook tree using hand painting. This sensory activity will give opportunity for pupils to communicate their choices and possibly even emotions through the choice of color.

Children can be separated in small groups or work as a whole.

For pupils that can extend the activity and endure a bit more sitting time, ask them to create their own rainbow.

