Venue Hire

details for

The Waterloo Room at The Elms Bedhampton

A venue with a difference

If you are looking to hold a meeting, function or event at an historic venue with a difference, then look no further

This surprisingly spectacular and versatile historic room regularly plays host to talks, meetings, exhibitions, training sessions, workshops, community events and activities

The Waterloo Room

This beautiful atmospheric room can be configured and adapted to suit your event

The room is capable of seating 50 in a variety of layouts which can be designed to suit your specific needs

The Waterloo Room was built in the 1820s by Sir John Theophilus Lee,

The Deputy Lord Lieutenant of Hampshire in the hope that he might persuade the Duke of Wellington to dine there... He never came, but his spectacular legacy lives on
