

Submission and Process of your Commercial Introduction

We at Total Money Management like to ensure our Introducers receive the best service and return on their introduction as possible. To enable this to happen, whether we deal with your client direct or you retain contact, we have illustrated here the full process to payment.

We do pride ourselves on ensuring all service standards are met, however, we do also rely upon the client providing the information requested in full. We will look at every possibility of financing your clients' requirements.
