What does membership of the Tobermory Harbour mean?

- By becoming a member of the Tobermory Harbour you are involved in shaping the future of the company.
- All members will receive notices and newsletters to keep them informed. Only Ordinary members have a right to vote at general meetings of the THA and stand for the Board.
- There is no membership subscription either at time of joining or any periodic basis. The liability of members is limited to a maximum of £1 as defined in the Articles. Refer to articles 11 and 12 explaining the liability in event of the Company being wound up.
- Full Details of membership and the objects of the Company can be found in the Articles of Association and the THA Handbook on the website: www.tobermoryharbour.co.uk

How can you help as a member?

Tobermory Harbour values its concept of 'facilities for all', providing excellent facilities which enhance the harbour area. This has a direct impact on the Island in terms of economy and tourism. We want to safeguard our unique community harbour for future generations. It is therefore important that as a member you also share this vision and can contribute to its success.

We hope that you will play an active role in supporting Tobermory Harbour by attending general meetings and sharing your opinions and expectations. However, the Board are always happy to hear from members at any time.

The Board of Directors are all Ordinary Members and information on elections and Board responsibilities are detailed in the Articles.

Why do we need members?

Tobermory Harbour relies on the support and input of its members to ensure that the Company meets its aims and objects.

Tobermory Harbour uses its membership to demonstrate the level of support it has for work done and projects undertaken.

Data Protection (GDPR Compliant)

Tobermory Harbour will only contact you with relevant information: no unsolicited marketing. Our Privacy policy can be found on the Tobermory Harbour website.
