At The Little School Daycare are committed to ensuring that any personal data we hold about you/ your child is protected in accordance with data protection laws and is used in line with your expectations.

This privacy notice explains what personal data we collect, why we collect it, how we use it and how we protect it.

What personal data do we collect?

The Little School Daycare collects personal data about you/your child to provide care and learning that is tailored to meet your child's individual needs. The Little School Daycare also collects information in order to verify your eligibility for free childcare as applicable.

Personal details that The Little School Daycare collect about your child include:

- your child's name, date of birth, address, health and medical needs, vehicle registration (if applicable), development needs, birth certificate, passport and any special educational needs.

Where applicable The Little School Daycare will obtain child protection plans from social care and health care plans from health professionals.

We will also ask for information about who has parental responsibility, information about who your child lives with, emergency details for your child and any court orders pertaining to your child.

This information will be collected from you directly in the registration forms, parking permits and enquiry forms.

If you apply for up to 30 hours free childcare, The Little School Daycare will also collect:

- your national insurance number or unique taxpayer reference (UTR), if you're self-employed. The Little School Daycare may also collect information regarding benefits and family credits that you are in receipt of.

Why we collect this information and the legal basis for handling your data.
