BOARD NEWSLETTER

Board meeting held on 29 September 2016

KEY DECISIONS

- To approve the 2015-16 IOWSCB Annual Report.
- To agree changes to the structure of the Board. The current process-driven approach to satisfy the constitution will change to a scrutiny and challenge focus, with a more learning-centred thematic approach. The joint Executive for the Isle of Wight and Hampshire LSCBs will take forward the changes.
- To approve the 2015-16 4LSCB CDOP Annual Report.
- To note the 2015-16 Targeted Early Help Annual Report, and the 2015-16 Barnardo's Annual Impact Report.
- To bring to the 15 December 2016 Board meeting a report providing assurance of safeguarding within the My Life a Full Life programme.
- To bring to the 15 December 2016 Board meeting a report on the Voice of the Child, collected during the audits on Early Help and Section 47 Enquiries for Disabled Children.
- To note that all taxi drivers are now required to undertake online Child Sexual Exploitation training before being awarded their licence.
- A presentation was made to Maggie Blyth, who is leaving her role as Independent Chair to take up a new role as a Direct Entry Superintendent for Hampshire Constabulary. The Board acknowledged the key role she has played in the Isle of Wight's improvement journey. The recruitment process for her successor is nearing completion.
