To survive, let alone thrive after 50 years of anything should be a cause for celebration and although we can't really say that it's the golden age of recovery anymore it may just be for anybody who needs recovering in Hampshire.

NO, NOT a white knight coming to the rescue but a golden chariot - well kind of - A Golden Vauxhall Movano! To celebrate and promote their 50th anniversary Boarhunt commissioned J&J Conversions to build their new 4.5 ton heavy duty lightweight transporter sign written and wrapped in gold.

This light weight transporter, boasting close to a two ton payload was the first of an extensive fleet replacement programme scheduled with J&J Conversions for 2014.

Early Summer saw delivery of an F1 aluminium low approach slidebed fitted to an Iveco Daily, two new Predator Slide beds on Iveco crew cabs in July with two heavier duty 12 ton MAN Euro 6 slidebeds to follow towards the end of the year.

Richard went himself to Fareham to meet with Robert and Paul Doney to discuss options and operational needs. Recently Boarhunt have streamlined parts of their business and diversified in other areas. Whilst discussing the trials and tribulations of keeping a business profitable after all the changes within the industry it was glaringly obvious that older vehicles were not only incurring crippling monthly maintenance costs but the unreliability of having even one truck out of service was detrimental to operational needs.

Running costs were a real driving factor when Rob and Paul looked at their business planning and potential fleet replacement. Exorbitant repair bills are a thing of the past now. With excellent finance packages available and three year warranties on most new J&J Conversions- matching the chassis manufacturers warranties - it has not only stabilised monthly expenditure but it's considerably cheaper than running a tired fleet.

Congratulations to Boarhunt on their golden anniversary

Richard was delighted to provide a tailor made service to one of his most long standing customers and all at J&J would like to wish Boarhunt a very Happy Golden Anniversary.
