

MEALS AND ACTIVITIES

We endeavour to provide a wide variety of wholesome food and drink at Khaya. All residents are encouraged to make their meals or take turns as part of their therapeutic programme.

Meals are provided each day with some residents self-catering as appropriate. Support is provided for those who require to develop catering skills.

HOLIDAYS

Once yearly, holidays are arranged for staff and service users. Day trips are also organised.

Member of

Khaya Project is a provider of Residential Care Homes and Supported Living in the community, in Ilford and Woolwich respectively.

We provide Care, support, board and accommodation of a high standard.

We are registered with Care Quality Commission (CQC) and operate within the Health and Social Care Act 2008.

THE NAME

“Khaya” is a Zulu name for “Home”, which is in line with our commitment to providing a therapeutic “Khaya” (Homely) environment for our service users.

SERVICES

We specialise in providing a supportive environment for adults with a history of mental illness who may also have a forensic history (Wellesley Rd) and may have been discharged on community sections of the Mental Health Act 1983.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation is provided in residential buildings with ample space and large gardens, designed with residents’ privacy and safety in mind. The accommodation offered is of high quality which is all inclusive for bills such as water, lighting, gas and meals.

ROOMS

Each resident has his or her own fully furnished bedroom with some rooms surpassing the minimum requirements stipulated in the minimum care standards.

Most of the rooms are fitted with a wash basin or en-suit facilities while others may share facilities like bathroom, shower, toilet and communal area. Residence living at Khaya will have keys issued for their bedroom and main entrance to the building.

FACILITIES

Wellesley Rd project has large gardens, part of which are developed to gardening project for interested residents. In the communal areas of the home, equipment such as sky television, hi-fi, computer with internet and a dvd player are provided for residents’ use.
