

FAMILY TRADITIONS

A pretty B&B in Suffolk has been carefully restored to celebrate its past and ensure its future. We pay a visit and soak up the Christmas atmosphere

SEASONAL NOTES In the corner of the dining room, a father Christmas, whose annual appearance is a family tradition, sits atop an old piano on loan from a local girls' school.

LIGHT FANTASTIC Fresh foliage has been woven around the candlesticks that line the mantelpiece. This unusual antique example with the figure of a boy was a gift from Cindy's mother.
