Our offer

Ash House provides high quality, holistic, person-centred rehabilitative care and specialised treatment for men with complex mental health needs and/or challenging behaviours. Our goal is for each of the men in our care to achieve meaningful and sustainable positive change in their lives and to gain greater independence, long-term mental wellbeing and successful reintegration into their community at their earliest opportunity.

Ash House is a psychologically informed and planned service. We focus on nurturing an enabling environment through an operational framework and clinical model developed specifically to meet the needs of our patient group. Our overarching treatment approach is informed by dynamic formulation and focused on building and maintaining appropriate interpersonal relationships, service delivery consistency, structured management, clear and reinforced boundaries, safety, outcome resilience and coordinated clinical and therapeutic engagement and leadership.

Going forward

Our intention is to keep investing in Ash House, to continue to make it better, our aim is to become an outstanding service.
