

Privacy Policy

Discovery Battlefield Tours takes your privacy very seriously and, as such, undertakes never to share or sell personal information to any third party unless it is a legal requirement to provide certain information to border agencies for security purposes.

The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination policy and practices for Discovery Battlefield Tours and this website:

1. This site may contain links to other sites. Discovery Battlefield Tours is not responsible for the privacy practices, policy or the content of other websites.
2. Our site may use a form for customers to request information, products, and services or for email communications. We may collect visitor's contact information, like their name, phone number and email address. Contact information from the form may be used to send information about Discovery Battlefield Tours to our customers, users and viewers who may opt-out of receiving future mailings.
3. Financial information may be collected (eg account numbers) and used only to bill the user for products and services, after which this financial data is destroyed and is no longer available, either to Discovery Battlefield Tours or any other company, person or website.
4. Personal information such as names, passport information and dates of birth is only used to provide Advance Passenger Information (API) to UK Border Force and other national Border Force agencies where providing this information is a legal requirement. Once used, it is securely destroyed.
5. The Discovery Battlefield Tours web site provides users the opportunity to opt-out of receiving communications from us on all future newsletters or email communications
