

Sussex IFCA Marine Protected Area Byelaw

Schedule 2, Beachy Head West

Guidance on Beachy Head West MCZ Boundary Positions

The Sussex IFCA Marine Protected Area Byelaw, Schedule 2 Beachy Head West, details the fisheries management legislation in relation to the Beachy Head West Marine Conservation Zone. Full details of the Byelaw and guidance on the relevant fisheries management measures is available at:

<http://www.sussex-ifca.gov.uk/regulations>

This additional position guidance is intended to assist fishers in understanding and adhering to the MPA schedule 2, by providing information on the positions of the boundary of the Beachy Head West Marine Conservation Zone.

This guidance does not replace information within the Sussex IFCA Marine Protected Area Byelaw or the Beachy Head West MCZ Designation Order. The guidance is provided to support fishers who are fishing in the Sussex IFCA district. It does not limit or restrict enforcement decision making, but may inform the Authority's compliance management.

This guidance is aimed at commercial fishers and may also be helpful to members of the public. If you need further advice, please contact a fisheries officer at the Sussex IFCA, contact details are provided below.

The following positions and the straight (geodesic) lines that adjoin them provide a navigational seaward boundary of Beachy Head West Marine Conservation Zone, as enforced by Sussex Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority. The positions are provided in degrees and decimal minutes and are intended to be compatible with navigational systems commonly used.
