

Code of Professional Practice

Staff working at/for Paws2Walk will:

- Carry out their practice with pride, integrity, care and honesty, taking safe responsibility for client's companion animals while in their charge.
- Demonstrate trustworthiness, reliability and dependability, understanding the important contractual commitment they have agreed to accept.
- Be mindful of their duty of care when caring for client's animals, client property, security and overall safety.
- Maintain a professional relationship with clients; respecting and accepting individual client values without imposing their own values in the course of delivering the service. This does not include however, pet care and advice where requested or where necessary to safeguard the welfare of any animal.
- Not seek to exploit the professional/client relationship for any improper financial, personal or professional advantage or gain.
- Carry out the business of pet sitting, dog walking, house sitting and pet care fairly with credibility and due regard to the reputation of Paws2Walk.
- Maintain professional accountability through insurance, disclosure and barring clearance, education & continual professional learning and development.
