

Louise Quinlan, Head of Business and Project Manager for Silent Mind

Louise Quinlan began her Drama teacher training at Bitterne Park School, before joining Michelle and Lisa in the Performing Arts department at Richard Tauntons for further experience at sixth form level.

Realising her passion for business, Louise left the college in 2015, embarking on a career which saw her grow from Partnership Manager to Regional Group Director for a high-end exclusive business club, operating in eight regions across Hampshire, Dorset, Surrey and London.

Louise's role involved looking after over 60 clients, mostly Managing Directors or Owners of well established businesses with turnovers ranging from between £1 million to £94 million, offering business development, strategy planning and marketing campaigns to help grow their business. Part of Louise's role also meant she planned and executed over 30 board meetings and events each year for her exclusive clients, providing opportunities for professional development, networking and new business.

Joining Theatre For Life as Head of Business, Louise is now able to combine her two loves of business and theatre, bringing a wealth of experience of managing budgets and events.
