-----------------	-----------------

1. Introduction

Theatre for Life makes a positive contribution to a strong and safe community and recognises the right of every individual to stay safe.

Theatre for Life comes into contact with young people through the following activities:
Weekly rehearsals with qualified drama workshop leaders participating in practical drama and dance work, music and technical theatre sessions. Educational workshops and through private tuition.

Technical / dress rehearsals in a professional theatre working with lights, set and costumes. (A risk assessment will be created to measure health and safety risk factors which will be accessible for the venue and parents to access)

The types of contact with young people will be a weekly 1.5 hr rehearsal during the academic terms in a drama studio. (The venue will be risk assessed prior to the rehearsals). Throughout the production period the type of contact will be a 1 day technical / dress rehearsal (8 hrs) and 2 evening performances (4hrs each) in a professional theatre. Throughout the production period Theatre for Life will employ additional DBS checked chaperones for young people under the age of 18 years old. Consent forms will be issued to parents/guardians to sign to cover the production period, an emergency contact list will also be created. Community workshops to recruit for the Working Theatre company will be held throughout the year for 18-25 year olds, these will involve drama based activities at the designated rehearsal space. Workshop leaders will be conducting workshops in schools and will abide to all health and safety measures and safeguarding policies set out by the school. Industry led workshops will be run in the school holidays by Stephen King (Singing), Ameer Choudrie (Acting), and Poppy Andrews (Dance) - all these workshop leaders have provided Michelle Smith a clear DBS check.

2. Administrators

Administrators Michelle Smith (Chairperson) and Holly Ashby (Education Manager) are both DBS checked and are qualified in working with young people and vulnerable adults and will adhere to the data protection act when accessing personal details about the company members and workshop leaders.

All company members under the age of 18 will be supervised at all times and will never be left unsupervised in a public building where additional staff work such as caretakers or theatre staff. Additional DBS checked chaperones will be employed for production periods.

Theatre for life has a Charities and Community insurance which covers: Public/products liability, Employers liability, Professional and management liability and entity defence.

3. Legislation

The principal pieces of legislation governing this policy are:

- The Children Act 1989
- The Human Rights Act 1998
- The Education Act 2002
- The Children Act 2004
- The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
- The Equality Act 2010
- The Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 (which describes the work or regulated activity that barred people must not engage in)
- The Care Act 2014
- Keeping Children Safe in Education 2016
- Working Together to Safeguard Children 2015
- The Modern Slavery Act 2015
- The Serious Crime Act 2015
- The Prevent duty 2015
- Multi-agency statutory guidance on female genital mutilation 2016.

4. Definitions

Safeguarding is about embedding practices throughout the organisation to ensure the protection of young people and / or vulnerable adults wherever possible. In contrast, child and adult protection is about responding to circumstances that arise.

Abuse is a selfish act of oppression and injustice, exploitation and manipulation of power by those in a position of authority. This can be caused by those inflicting harm or those who fail to act to prevent harm. Abuse is not restricted to any socio-economic group, gender or culture.

It can take a number of forms, including the following:

- Physical abuse
- Sexual abuse
- Emotional abuse
- Bullying
- Neglect
- Female genital mutilation
- Financial (or material) abuse

Definition of a child

A child is under the age of 18 (as defined in the United Nations convention on the Rights of a Child).

Definition of Vulnerable Adults

A vulnerable adult is a person aged 18 years or over who may be unable to take care of themselves or protect themselves from harm or from being exploited.

This may include a person who:

- Has a mental illness including dementia
- Has a physical or sensory disability
- Has a learning disability
- Has a severe physical illness
- Is a substance misuser
- Is homeless

5. Responsibilities

All volunteers and workshop leaders have a responsibility to follow the guidance laid out in this policy and related policies, and to pass on any welfare concerns using the required procedures. We expect all staff to promote good practice by being an excellent role model, contribute to discussions about safeguarding and to positively involve people in developing safe practices.

Additional responsibilities

TRUSTEE MEMBERS:

Chairperson and senior manager for safeguarding (Michelle Smith) and Holly Ashby (Education Manager) have a responsibility to ensure:

- Policy is in place and both trustees have completed Safeguarding Training in working with young people.
- All staff have access to the Theatre for Life Safeguarding policy as well as online training: Working with Young People (Educare). An induction will be carried out with all new staff.
- Both trustee members will ensure they keep updated on any new legislations for Safeguarding and will review the policy at the AGM meeting each year.
- Safeguarding training has been purchased through Educare and is available for staff to access if required.
- Michelle Smith and Holly Ashby will adhere to the The Data Protection Act 1998 and all personal data will be registered with the International Commissioner's Office - <https://ico.org.uk>
- Both Michelle Smith and Holly Ashby are first aid trained.
- All Safeguarding concerns will be addressed in the committee meetings and documented. The senior manager will then deal with these concerns and keep the team informed.
- DBS checks will be carried out for all volunteers and workshop leaders.
- Both the chairperson and secretary will maintain effective links with the local youth community who may want to use Theatre for Life as well as support workers if required. Once we have recruited our company members we will ensure that we have the relevant contact details for each member and any associated agencies relating to the child or young adult.
- Ensure effective communication measures are in place responding to staff concerns about safeguarding through the procedures as outlined in this policy.
- Develop and maintain effective links with relevant agencies and the local council for child support and working with vulnerable adults.
- Obtain parental / guardian consent forms for young people under the age of 18 for their participation in all Theatre for Life activities, as well getting permission to feature in any photography or media work relating to Theatre for Life.
- Health and safety risk assessments will be completed for both the rehearsals and production work.
- Additional DBS checked chaperones will be employed for the production periods for young people under the age of 18.
- A code of conduct or behaviour policy for all staff and the young people attending the Youth groups will be signed.

6. Implementation Stages

The scope of this Safeguarding Policy is broad ranging and in practice, it will be implemented via a range of policies and procedures within the organisation.

Responsibilities of senior manager in charge of Safeguarding: Michelle Smith

Whistleblowing policy:

To follow up all concerns as a care of duty to both staff members and the young people in the company. Michelle Smith's duty of care is to respond appropriately, proportionately and helpfully to safeguarding concerns and disclosures. The necessary agencies including support workers will be contacted.

Michelle Smith's duty of care is to be aware of signs and indicators of abuse, but NOT to investigate. That is for social care professionals and the police. Michelle Smith's role is to gather the information competently and pass it to the designated staff and then communicate the information to external agencies. Michelle Smith will refer it to the local authority children's social care department (if under 18) or adult social care (if over 18) if required.

Michelle Smith will record any conversations with the young people in a disclosure with any staff members that the young person has informed.

The disclosure will include:

Young person's name, address, age, staff contact details/ roles, what has been said or observed with dates if possible (distinguishing fact from opinion), action taken so far, who has been told, why and when? Signed and dated.

To obtain consent from the Young people aged 16, they must agree to their information being shared. That is, the person must understand the situation and willingly agree to their information being shared. It should therefore include some form of communication (written, verbal, sign language etc) where the individual knowingly indicates consent

7. Communication training and support for staff

If, after discussion with a young person who has mental capacity, they decide they do not want to share their information, their wishes will be respected unless: there is public interest (ie not acting will put others at risk).

There is a duty of interest (ie not acting will put others at risk).

There is a duty of care to intervene (eg a crime has or may have been committed).

All data will be stored confidentially and will only be accessed by Michelle Smith and Petrice Gordon.

Both staff members will adhere to the data protection act 1998. Theatre for Life will be registered with the International Commissioner's Office - <https://ico.org.uk>

Grievance and disciplinary policy:

All staff grievances will be followed up as part of the Theatre for Life disciplinary procedure:

Staff should let Michelle Smith know the nature of the grievance and issues promptly. Staff member and the senior manager (Michelle Smith) should try to resolve any grievance informally in the first instance.

Where this is not possible, staff should arrange a formal meeting as quickly as possible, and should carry out any necessary investigations to establish the facts of the case.

Staff can be accompanied at any formal meeting and have the right to appeal against any formal decision made.

Recruitment:

- Providing the following safeguarding statement in recruitment adverts or application details –‘recruitment is done in line with safe recruitment practices.’
- Job or role descriptions for all roles involving contact with children and / or vulnerable adults will contain reference to safeguarding responsibilities.
- There are person specifications for roles which contain a statement on core competency with regard to child/ vulnerable adult protection/ safeguarding
- DBS checks will be required prior to any work

Safe recruitment

Theatre for Life ensures safe recruitment through the following processes:

DBS

The organisation commits resources to providing a Disclosure and Barring check on staff whose roles involve contact with children and /or vulnerable adults.

In order to avoid DBS gaps, the organisation will only employ staff who already have this in place. In addition to checks on recruitment for roles involving contact with children/ vulnerable adults, for established staff the following processes are in place: Reference checks / previous safeguarding training (if not achieved, Theatre for Life will offer this prior to the work placement).

8. Professional boundaries

Theatre for Life also implements the following policies as part of Safeguarding:

- An equality and diversity policy which prohibits discrimination, harassment, bullying and homophobia. It will also detail arrangements that ensure immediate action is taken should the need arise.
- An anti-bullying policy which includes cyberbullying with clear procedures as above.
- An acceptable use of technology policy.
- A temporary visitor policy.
- A safer recruitment policy that embeds safeguarding into all areas of the recruitment process.
- A code of conduct or behaviour policy for all staff and learners

Professional boundaries are what define the limits of a relationship between a volunteer and young person. They are a set of standards we agree to uphold that allows this necessary and often close relationship to exist while ensuring the correct detachment is kept in place.

Theatre for life expects staff to protect the professional integrity of themselves and the organisation.

Before recruiting staff and volunteers at Theatre for Life all DBS checks will be in place.

As part of staff training all staff will participate in an induction programme, which will include:

- Discussion of the Safeguarding Policy (and confirmation of understanding with a signature and date)
- Discussion of other relevant policies
- Ensure familiarity with reporting processes, the roles of line manager and Designated Senior Manager (and who acts in their absence)
- Initial training on safeguarding including: safe working practices, safe recruitment, understanding child protection and the alerter guide for adult safeguarding

The following professional boundaries must be adhered to:

- Giving and receiving gifts: Theatre for Life will not allow staff to give gifts to or receive gifts from the young people. However gifts may be provided by the organisation as part of a 'planned activity'.
- Staff contact with user groups. 'Personal relationships between a member of staff and a young person in Theatre for Life is prohibited. This includes personal relationships through social networking sites such as facebook, instagram, snap chat etc. Staff are also prohibited to enter into a personal relationship with a person who has been a service user over the past 12 months.'
A group Facebook account will be set up to advertise the company and performances to the public only.
