Promoting British Values Policy

Promoting British Values

Date	Review Date	Coordinator
September 2024	August 2025	Mrs M Brown Ms V Brown Mrs D York Miss A West Ms K Gorton

We believe this policy relates to the following legislation:

- Education Act 2002
- Education and Inspections Act 2006
- Equalities Act 2010
- Children Act 2011
- Education Act 2011

The following documentation is also related to this policy:

- Citizenship and Belonging: What is Britishness? (Commission for Racial Equality)
- Diversity and Citizenship (DES)
- Equality Act 2010: Advice for Schools (DfE)
- Prevent Strategy 2011
- Promoting British values as part of SMSC (DES)
- Teachers' Standards (DfE)

We believe British values are best defined as 'democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs' although these values are not actually unique to Britain alone.

We support the rule of English and criminal law and we will not teach anything that undermines it.

We have a duty to actively promote and embed these values and to challenge pupils, school personnel or parents who express extremist views contrary to fundamental British values. We want to ensure pupils are prepared for life in modern Britain by the active promotion of and respect of British values.

We believe these values are reinforced regularly through a broad and balanced curriculum and through:

- being a UNICEF Rights Respecting school, the school council, pupil questionnaires, school councillor elections, class charters (Democracy)
- school rules, playground rules, safety rules, visits from the Police, visits to a council chamber and to meet local councillors (Rule of Law)
- e-Safety, PSHE, extra-curricular activities (Individual Liberty)
- Golden Rules, behaviour policy (Mutual Respect)

- RE, PSHE, celebration of different faiths and cultures, visit to places of worship of world faiths, promoting languages of EAL pupils, links with schools in other countries(Tolerance of those of Different Faiths and Beliefs)

We give pupils 'first-hand experience of the diverse make-up of modern British society' by teaching them respect for other faiths and developing their awareness and knowledge of communities different than their own. We value the diverse ethnic backgrounds of all our pupils and throughout the year we hold a variety of events to celebrate these.

We 'expect teachers to uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and behaviour, within and outside school' and 'not to undermine fundamental British values'.

We aim to be judged at least good in all school inspections by ensuring that pupils understand the importance of British values and leave school ready to play their full part in British society.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.

Equality Impact Assessment

Under the Equality Act 2010 we have a duty not to discriminate against people on the basis of their age, disability, gender, gender identity, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief and sexual orientation.

This policy has been equality impact assessed and we believe that it is in line with the Equality Act 2010 as it is fair, it does not prioritise or disadvantage any pupil and it helps to promote equality at this school. (See Initial Equality Impact Assessment)
