

General Practitioners are required for active positions in Hobart and surrounding areas.

Positions are available in both private and corporate practices throughout metropolitan, regional or rural areas. Whether you enjoy a more cosmopolitan lifestyle or the tranquillity of a small country town, AMA Recruitment has the position for you.

A variety of clinical experiences are available for those wishing to gain additional skills whilst enjoying a sojourn in some of Australia's most beautiful and enchanting regions. Areas of interest such as Aboriginal health and tropical medicine provide interest for the overseas trained medical practitioners.

Hours are 8.30am to 5.00pm Monday to Friday with additional hours available. On call requirements are dependent on specific practice requirements.

Excellent remuneration negotiated with minimum salary guaranteed. Options for a percentage of billings are available.

Working through AMA Recruit you are assured of a professional and ethical service. As the Professional Association for Medical Practitioners in Australia we are able to provide unrivalled industry experience and unsurpassed quality of service.
