

The Three Kings of Racing

Arkle, Desert Orchid and Red Rum are three iconic horses of British racing that each captured the hearts of the nation.

The name Arkle represents the pinnacle of achievement in jump racing. With three consecutive Cheltenham Gold Cup wins he is regarded as a remarkable combination of talent, intelligence and bravery known simply as "Himself".