CHRISTMAS AT CLAYFIELD

Seasons Greetings,

Christmas is always a busy time for everyone so we are letting you know Clayfield's planned activities and we do hope that you will be able to join us at some point.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the staff at Clayfield for their hard work and commitment over the year and especially over the festive period.

Tony and I wish you all a very happy Christmas and a peaceful and healthy New Year!

Regards

Lynette Hollick, Home Provider

I can't quite believe Christmas is here again. We are looking forward to all of our festive fun in the coming weeks and hope you can join us and be a part of making it an extra special time for all.

I want to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New year!

regards

Amy Byrne, Registered Care Home Manager

Christmas Art Session with Family & Friends

On Wednesday 20th December between 2 & 4pm we are inviting family & friends to join residents in our Christmas art session hosted by Sarah Fenner from Creative Minds.

There will be refreshments & mince pies available during the session.

We hope as many of you can join us in this fun creative Session!

Reminder - Christmas Jumper Donation

This year we thought it would be nice if all residents had a Christmas jumper. If you are able to donate any unwanted festive jumpers they would be gratefully received.

New Menu Launch

Our 2 week menu has been reviewed and we are looking to launch the new menu very shortly. We have some exciting new additions such as a 'midweek roast', all-day brunch, Stews as well as new desserts for both lunch and dinner. Please keep your eyes peeled for more information on these very soon!

IMPORTANT DATES

- 8th Dec—Chiropodist Visit
- 13th Dec—Residents Christmas Party
- 19th Dec—Hairdresser Visit
- 20th Dec—Christmas Art Session for Residents, Family & Friends.
