

Young Carers Service offer

Universal	Targeted Respite	Standard	Intensive
Young Carer has low level of caring responsibilities which they can manage without significant negative impact	Young Carer has low level caring responsibilities which they can manage without significant negative impact Caring tends to take place often but not daily.	Young Carer has medium level of caring responsibilities which impacts on their ability to take part in everyday activities. They undertake regular practical caring tasks.	Young carer has high level of caring responsibilities that have an impact on their ability to take part in everyday activities. They undertake daily practical caring tasks.
Caring role is not significantly affecting other areas such as: Ability to attend school and to attain at school Ability to take part in out of school activities, e.g. clubs or playing with friends. Family quite well supported by family/friends/neighbours and/or find it easy to access other services.	Caring role is not significantly affecting other areas such as: Ability to attend school Ability to take part in out of school activities, e.g. clubs or playing with friends. Family quite well supported by family/friends/neighbours and/or find it easy to access other services. Family has a team of professionals involved in providing support.	Caring role is affecting other areas such as Ability to attend school Ability to take part in out of school activities, e.g. clubs or playing with friends Physical, mental or emotional health may be affected at a low level Family finances, housing may be affected Caring role is related to parental ill health, mental health, substance misuse or physical disability. Family has a team of professionals involved in providing support. Services are engaged with the family on a regular basis to address family needs.	Caring role is affecting other areas such as: Ability to attend school and attain in school. Ability to take part in out of school activities, eg clubs or playing with friends Physical, mental, or emotional health is affected significantly. Family finances, housing is affected. Caring role is related to parental ill health, mental health, substance misuse or physical disability. Family has little or no support from family, friends, and needs significant support from agencies regularly.

Changing childhoods.
Changing lives.

Young Carers Service offer

Service Offer	Service Offer	Service Offer	Service Offer
Newsletters and information about what's on in your area Invites to Young Carers Universal Respite activities, trips and events.	Newsletters and information about what's on in your area Invites to Young Carers Targeted respite activities, trips, and events.	Contact with a support worker once a term. Newsletters and information about what's on in your area. Invite to Young Carers Targeted respite activities, trips, and events.	Regular intensive 1-1 support. Newsletters and information about what's on in your area Invite to Young Carers Targeted respite activities, trips and events.