Job description: We are looking for an adviser to deliver an advice service to people with Dementia, their family and carers.

We are looking for an adviser with good IT skills to support clients with issues such as benefits, debt, housing, employment, care and legal matters. Full training can be provided but prior knowledge is desirable.

You'll have the ability to interview clients using sensitive listening and questioning skills to get to the root of the issues, understanding when it is appropriate to empower clients and when acting on behalf of clients is necessary.

The adviser should be proactive in raising awareness of the service and be confident in managing their own caseload.

Essential:

- Able to work unsupervised
- Good IT skills
- Good communication skills
- Willing to train to adviser level ASAP
