

MEET THE TEAM

Neil Coster – Managing Director

Having worked as a director of Carpol Insurance since 1996, Neil together with his Wife Cora, purchased the business from his father Paul Coster in 2003. Neil oversees the day to day running of the company and his responsibilities include sales, Marketing, compliance and liaising with insurance companies to establish new facilities/schemes. Neil also arranges insurance for all types of commercial enterprises from sole proprietors to Plc companies.

Neil has continued to run Carpol Insurance much as his father did before him, continuing to establish and maintain a personal relationship with both new and existing clients.
