

SYNERGY SAILING
BUILDING BUSINESS... UNDER SAIL

Get your people onboard with Synergy Sailing and release the power of teamwork

Sailing is quite simply the most effective sport at facilitating teambuilding. It encompasses all the key ingredients of good teamwork - planning; motivation; trust; delegation; leadership and communication. All elements that are critical in the workplace and essential to achieving a strong ROI from your teambuilding event.

At Synergy Sailing our events are goal orientated, engaging and have been designed to enhance workplace skills whilst building on the performances of the individual and the team. It is very important to us that your day is rewarding, purposeful, inclusive, collaborative and fun; with everyone feeling that they have learned something new and experienced a higher level of personal achievement.

As an individual day or as part of a Leadership or Management Development Programme our team building events offer unforgettable experiences and great value for money. They are suitable for all ages and abilities with no previous sailing experience required and can be tailored to all budgets.

Whether your business is in the Doldrums or is riding on the crest of a wave, staff retention and motivation is critical to your business success. So for a day with a difference, a sense of adventure and fun as well as genuine purpose call us now on 02392 779901 or email info@synergysailing.co.uk
